

GRANVILLE COUNTY

Benefits of Volunteering

- Offers an opportunity for students to fulfill community service requirements for school.
- Youths interested in careers in law, criminal justice, law enforcement, etc., can be educated about the American system of justice
- Students are empowered to take an active role in addressing crime in their community
- Teen court builds competencies among youth through training to handle various courtroom roles and improves communication, presentation and problem solving skills
- Teen court experience and community service hours are a prestigious accomplishment to be put on college applications.
- Youth can receive a letter of reference
- Opportunity to attend State Teen Court Summit